Mission Statement

To secure the rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for all people in the United States of America by forming a more perfect union, establishing justice, insuring domestic tranquility, providing for the common defense, promoting the general welfare, and securing the blessings of liberty for Americans and their future generations.

United States of America: Vision

We envision a thriving United States where all Americans are able to exercise and express their rights, find their own joy and happiness, and experience life to the fullest extent possible.

United States of America: Core Beliefs

Equality - All people are created equally and discrimination against others is not permitted.

Life - From the moment of birth, we have the right to be alive.

Liberty - We are free and autonomous people, and have the right to experience life, grow, learn and contribute to the world around us in ways that are meaningful to us. As long as we're not causing harm to others or violating another's rights, we have the right to do as we please.

Pursuit of Happiness - We have the right to explore, identify and do what brings us joy, peace, and happiness. This also includes the right to take well-informed risks and engage in things other people might not agree with. This is our life.

We Own Our Government - Government exists at the consent of the governed. All rights are already owned by each person. Our constitution grants certain, specific rights to act our collective behalf to secure our future.

United States of America: Guiding Principles for the Government

- Bill of Rights - We are guided by the Bill of Rights; All rights not granted to the government are retained by individuals.
- Right to Redress - We own the government and have a right to protest and petition the government to correct its actions.
- Freedom of Conscience & Religion - Everyone has a right to their own religious beliefs; The government shall not respect anyone's particular religion nor allow them to interfere with another person's inalienable or civil rights.
- Freedom of Speech and Expression - We believe all people have the right speak and express themselves freely.
- Freedom of Association - We have the right to form bonds and relationships with others of our choosing.
- Self-Defense & the Right to Bear Arms - We have a right to defend ourselves, and to keep and bear arms.
- Privacy - We have a right to privacy in our thoughts, communications, property and effects.
- Private Property - We have a right to own property and goods.
- Law & Order - We believe laws and rules should be equally applicable, practical and fair.
- Adulthood & Voting - We believe full legal rights should be assumed at the age of 18; All those who have reached adulthood have a right to vote.
- Freedom of Press - We have a right to truthful, transparent and accurate information; We believe a free press is necessary to secure our freedom.
- Justice - We believe that justice should be equal, fair and accessible, that all people are presumed innocent, and that no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted.

United States of America: Values

- Freedom & Inalienable Rights to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness
- Equality
- Fairness and Practical, Human-Centered Laws
- Personal Choices, Independence, Self-Determination & Autonomy of Body, Mind and Spirit
- Freedom of Movement & Migration
- Unity

We call upon the U.S. Congress and President to formally adopt the Mission, Vision, Core Beliefs, Guiding Principles and Values embedded in the U.S. Declaration of Independence and United States Constitution.
